Utah Central Credit Union (UCCU) joins forces with MBL, LLC.

South Jordan, UT (July 7, 2008) - Utah Central Credit Union (UCCU) of Salt Lake City, UT, has joined forces with Member Business Lending, LLC (MBL), to offer their members the highest level of service and commitment available for small business loan service and knowledge. "We are delighted to welcome UCCU to the MBL network of member business lenders," said Kent Moon, President of MBL. "Our success and growth within the credit union industry is due to our association with credit unions like UCCU, which share a genuine commitment to meeting the needs of small businesses."

UCCU of Salt Lake City, UT has 21,395 members and assets of over $165 million. The credit union, founded in 1940, serves members throughout Salt Lake and Carbon counties. UCCU offers a full array of credit union products and services to their members. Their mission is to provide these services in a friendly, accurate, timely and responsible manner. UCCU has seven locations throughout Utah, and is a member of the service center network.

About MBL

Established in May 2004, MBL is the nation's leading credit union service organization (CUSO) dedicated to providing comprehensive business lending training, services and resources to credit unions. MBL pledges to aid, counsel, assist and protect participating credit unions and the member businesses they serve. Kent Moon, President of MBL, is a nationally renowned SBA lending expert, with over 33 years experience working with small businesses nationally. MBL has established a system where by pooling resources and sharing costs, all credit unions can affordably optimize the quality and efficiency of the business lending process and maximize ROA without draining staff and other resources. MBL was selected as the recipient of the prestigious annual CUSO Collaboration and Cooperation Award for 2007 by the National Association of Credit Union Service Organizations (NACUSO).
